

Association of Functional Diagnostic Nutrition Professionals

Mission Statement

The Mission of the Association of Functional Diagnostic Nutrition® Professionals (AFDNP) is to assist FDN Practitioners to build robust, stress-free FDN practices in which they educate as many people as possible how to get well and stay well naturally.

The AFDNP operates mindful of the First, Fourth, Ninth, Tenth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. The AFDNP and its members uphold that, as recognized by the US Constitution and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, we have and shall exercise:

1. Freedom of speech to share information and voice our opinions about anything that concerns us including alternatives to drugs, invasive surgery, vaccines, toxic chemicals, unlabeled GMO foods, pharmaceutical drugs, our air and water supply and anything else that may cause or exacerbate any physical, emotional, mental, medical or psychological concern, condition, disease, disorder or illness of any kind.
2. Freedom to confidentially assemble with other people of a like mind so we may learn about alternative, complementary, holistic, integrative and natural health, nutrition, therapies and wellness methods.
3. Freedom of choice for our own health, nutrition and wellness decisions including any diagnosis, treatment or intervention.
4. Freedom of self-determination based on access to all available information to help us make our own decisions about our own health, life, nutrition, therapies and wellness and that of our family, pets and dependents.
5. Freedom of privacy and all of the inalienable human rights guaranteed to us all by the US Constitution and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

The purpose of AFDNP is to support its members in ethical, business-building activities and their legal rights regarding the education of the public in the pursuit of individual health and happiness.
